Market today: Overcome the barrier

(Phuong Nguyen – phuong.nh@vdsc.com.vn)

- The market continued its upward trend and surpassed the resistance area of 1,170 points.
- It is expected that the market will continue to be supported when it retreats and there is still a chance to expand the increase in the near future.

The market continued to turn green entering the weekend trading session. With the successful move to overcome the 1,170 point barrier, market movements became more favorable and the gain was gradually increased. At the end of the session, VN-Index increased 12.44 points (+1.06%), closing at 1,181.5 points. Matching liquidity increased with 630.8 million shares matched on HOSE.

The VN30 group increased 11.32 points (+0.96%), closing at 1,185.23 points. In the group, there were 27 gainers such as BID (+4.9%), CTG (+3.5%), MSN (+2.1%), GAS (+1.9%), STB (+1.7%) ... On the contrary, there are only 3 losers, namely SSI (-0.3%), VHM (-0.3%) and VIC (-0.1%).

With the positive developments of the market, many industry groups still maintain their green color, but good growth is only concentrated on a few industry groups. The Banking Group continues to be the main driving force supporting the market and investor's psychology. By contrast, the Securities group retreated.

Foreign investors continued to be net buyers on HOSE, with a value of 179.2 billion VND. In particular, they bought a lot at HPG (+98.5 billion), STB (+71 billion), MWG (+64.6 billion), VPB (+48 billion), VHM (+43 billion) ... However, they sold strongly at SSI (-85.9 billion), VRE (-74.2 billion), FUEFVND (-37.6 billion), FRT (-30.2 billion), VND (-28.5 billion)....

The market continued its upward trend and surpassed the resistance area of 1,170 points. Liquidity increased compared to the previous session, showing that cash flow is still trying to support the market. With the rapid increase in points and uneven cash flow distribution in the market, there will likely be disputes and shaking in the next trading session. However, it is expected that the market will continue to be supported when it retreats and there is a chance to expand the increase in the near future. The next resistance area to note is the area around 1,200 points. Therefore, investors can expect the market to increase. Currently, you can consider choosing stocks that are showing good signals from the support zone to buy with the expectation of short-term price increase.

Technical Analyst Recommendations

The market continued to increase and surpassed the resistance area of 1,170 points. With the rapid increase in points, the market may be in a state of dispute and shaking in the next trading session. However, it is expected that the market will continue to be supported when it retreats and there is still a chance to expand the increase in the near future. The next resistance area to note is the area around 1,200 points. Therefore, investors can expect a possible increase in the market. Currently investors can consider choosing stocks with good signals from the support zone to buy cumulatively with the expectation of short-term price increase.
