Market today: Another recovery session

(Hieu Nguyen - Ext: 1514)

VNIndex rallied for the second day to close above 680 pts. Most of shares went higher since beginning of the day. There were 22 gainers over only 2 decliners. Besides VNM, GAS, MSN, CTG and BID, ROS continued to contribute to today gains. The stock was listed in September and it only take 2 months for ROS to reach such a large market cap of VND36,000 billion to become one of listed firms that have largest market cap. Given recent unbelievable upturns, which used to reach 12 streaks, management members of ROS has yet disclosed any written explanation. At today close, ROS is traded at P/E trailing of 300x.

The IPO of Habeco (BHN-Upcom) had drawn a lot of attraction as expected. Limit order of over 2 million shares was placed at ceiling price (40% higher than the reference price on IPO day), while BHN's free float is only around 2.7 million shares. As the stock was over demanded, . This situation is likely to continue in the upcoming days. BHN's IPO also has a positively effect on the performance of other beverage stocks in recent session (HAT, WSB and SMB)

*Despite being aggressively tested during the week, the index eventually managed to remain within the accumulation range. However, Q3 result could not transition into upward force, which implies that the market seems to have reflected investors' expectation. While the indices' trend stays indecisive between two opposite directions at the accumulation range, investors are recommended to stand by and observe.

Regarding macroeconomics, GSO has announced October CPI, which went up 0.83% compared to last month and 4.09% higher than the same time last year. In particular, two strongest increasing groups are medication and medical services (+10.07%) and energy (+4.14% due to gasoline's strong growth). Government's target inflation for 2016 is 5%.
